OFFICE POLICIES/PRACTICES: Review carefully. Initial each box as you read/agree to it.

Informed Consent: Participation in counseling can result in a number of benefits, including improving interpersonal relationships and resolution of the concerns that led you to seek therapy. Working toward these benefits requires effort on your part and your active involvement, honesty and openness in order to change. I will ask for your feedback and views on progress and other aspects of the therapy and expect you to respond openly and honestly. Sometimes more than one approach can be helpful in dealing with a situation. Remembering or talking about unpleasant events, feelings or thoughts can result in you experiencing considerable discomfort or feelings of anger, sadness, worry, fear, etc. or experiencing anxiety, depression, insomnia, etc. I may challenge some assumptions or perceptions or propose different ways of looking at, thinking about, or managing situations that may feel upsetting or you may feel challenged or disappointed. Attempting to resolve issues that brought you to therapy in the first place may result in changes that were not originally intended. Psychotherapy may result in decisions about changing behaviors, work, substance use, school, or relationships. Sometimes a decision that is positive for one family member is viewed negatively by another family member. Change will sometimes happen quickly, but more often takes time and patience on your part. There is no guarantee that counseling will yield positive or intended results. During the course of therapy, I may utilize therapeutic approaches according, in part, to the problem that is being treated, your choices, and feedback, and my assessment of what may benefit you. These may include but are not limited to supportive, cognitive-behavioral, psychodynamic, system/family, developmental, mindfulness, or psycho-educational.

Confidentiality: All clients sign and agree to confidentiality/HIPAA guidelines that are available for your review indicating that I follow standards as a Licensed Professional Counselor to protect the privacy of your personal information. All info is kept private and confidential unless you provide written and specific authorization to share it such as if you need me to speak with your physician or another therapist.

Exceptions include:

threat of imminent serious harm to self or others, suspected abuse of a minor, elder or disabled adult, a valid court order, in the event of a circumstance requiring immediate medical attention.

In group therapy, I understand that if I participate in group counseling, a condition of my doing so is that I protect the privacy and confidentiality of other participants. I agree that if I participate in group counseling, I will not disclose information about the identity, words, or actions of other group counseling participants to anyone outside the therapy group. I understand that even though all group members agree to the same stipulation detailed above Lotus Blossom Psychotherapy cannot guarantee confidentiality.

In couples and family therapy, or when members are seen individually, confidentiality does not apply between the couple or among family members. I will use my clinical judgment when revealing info. I will not release records to any party unless I am authorized in writing to do so by all adults who were part of treatment unless compelled to do so by law/valid court order. If coming for family or couple therapy please sign below that you agree to the confidentiality limits and understand that I won't withhold info between parties involved in treatment.

SIGN HERE if coming as a couple/family/group and you agree:

- Confidentiality of email & text communication: If you choose to email or text me, please limit the contents to issues such as cancellation or change in appointment time. Email and text messages are not guaranteed confidential. Occasionally I may send you an article or link that might be useful. If you choose to communicate with me this way, you do so understanding that I cannot guarantee that these modes of communication are confidential. For this and other ethical reason, I do not accept invitations from current or former clients via social networking sites such as Linked In, IG, or FB. There is a separate notice attached that you will be asked to sign in regards to this.

Consultation: On occasion, I may need to consult with licensed professionals regarding my clients when doing so might improve the outcome for the client. The client's name or other identifying information is never disclosed. The client's identity remains anonymous and confidentiality is maintained. If I am on vacation I may also need to share such info with the licensed therapist "covering" for me.

Insurance: Most of my clients choose not to use their insurance for counseling as they prefer the choice, control, and confidentiality of a premium counseling service that is not under contract with managed care. If you choose to use your insurance, please note that a mental health diagnosis is necessary on the form for reimbursement. I can provide you with a receipt that you can submit to your plan for out of network reimbursement. This is provided on a weekly basis for any sessions occurring over the month but can be requested more or less frequently. You are responsible for thoroughly checking your benefits and what percentage of the fee, if any, you may be reimbursed by your plan.

If you are using a HRA or Health or Flex Saving Account type plan, I can often accept a cc or check your plan may use for this purpose. In addition to the tax savings that process may not require a diagnosis.

Fees: I accept cash or check, (either is preferred) or VISA, Discovery, AE, or MC. Please fill out the form for credit card use that all clients complete even if they intend to usually use cash or a check. This allows use as a back-up if you forget your payment or for a late fee.

Regular therapy sessions are about 50-55 min. which is considered a therapeutic hr. Session fees are $130 for individuals and for couples/family therapy. The initial assessment is $150. It is typically an hour and a half.

I also offer 85 min sessions if a longer session is indicated or requested. Fee is $175. Double sessions are about 110 minutes and the fee is $250. These may work best for EMDR or those who cannot attend on a weekly or regular basis. If requested, the initial session can be one of these longer versions if appropriate and agreed to ahead of scheduling.

Group therapy charge is $40 per group. Groups vary and will have their own set of rules and consent forms at the time of signing up for the group. To be able to join a group a client will have to participate in an intake and that will be subject to the initial assessment fee of $150.

Sometimes a phone session might be an option. Right now, I am using a phone platform which is free but confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. Although rare a breach could happen and if you choose to communicate with me this way, you do so understanding that I cannot guarantee that these modes of communication are confidential. That said it can be an appropriate as an option on a regular or occasional basis due to challenges such as work travel, illness, or snow.

Coaching for DBT clients is offered but unless otherwise stipulated is confined to the hours of: Monday through Friday from 8AM-9PM and Saturdays from 8AM-1PM and is not available on Sundays. DBT clients will be provided with a separate document with guidelines and recommendations.

Please have payment ready so as not to use your session time writing checks, etc.

Late Cancellation: If you need to reschedule, please call me as soon as possible. Unlike Doctors who can overbook and may spend 15 min. per patient, therapists need to block a full hr. Since I hold a spot for you making it unavailable to another client, if less than 24 hrs. is provided you will be charged $85. If you do not show for a scheduled appointment without a cancellation call, you will be charged full fee for the missed session. I feel this is fair since it is customary to charge full fee for late cancels in our area. All reschedules or cancellations need to be done through confirmed communication so sending an email is not acceptable. I may make an exception, to the late fee based on the circumstances and/or if we are able to reschedule to another time that same week.

- Litigation Limitation: Due to the nature of the therapeutic process and that it often involves making a full disclosure with regard to many matters which may be of a confidential nature, you agree that should there be legal proceedings (such as, but not limited to divorce and custody disputes, injuries, lawsuits, etc.), neither you (client) nor anyone else acting on your behalf will call on me to testify in court or at any other proceeding. However, if my appearance at court is required by law and you signed a release form allowing this, my fee is $2,500 per day and must be paid in full 30 days prior to the expected court date.

- Duration and Termination: Most clients come weekly. Committing to and prioritizing that time is ideal. Occasionally, people attend therapy more often. Others may reduce frequency once things improve. Longer sessions are an option for those looking to get a jump start or if there's a need for more intensive work for a set period of time. Extended sessions can be helpful for busy clients or couples who have trouble coming in weekly or who need or request more focused work.

About half of my clients come for a few months until they get back on track. This is considered shorter term counseling. Some clients use therapy for a period of time, take a break, and return when they are ready or need to do more work. About half of my clients benefit from longer term counseling. They may have long standing issues, difficult childhood or recent experiences, on-going stressors in their career, relationships, health, recovery, or families, or multiple issues that require a lengthier counseling process.

Sometimes it becomes clear that a different approach or level of care is best or necessary. If I initiate terminating therapy with you, it will be because I feel that I am not able to be helpful or a higher level of care is indicated. My ethics and license requires that I have my clients' needs as primary in treatment planning. If I no longer feel that I am the right resource for you, I will offer referrals to other sources of care, but cannot guarantee that they will accept you or how they'll approach your treatment needs. Once you have stopped attending you are no longer under my care and our therapeutic relationship will be ended unless you reinstate treatment with me.

Ending therapy well is important. Length of counseling varies and is up to the client, however, please let me know if you feel ready to complete this course of counseling so that we can have 1-2 wrap up sessions to solidify gains you've made and to discuss recommendations to maintain progress. Often when we approach ending clients choose to switch to monthly sessions for 3 months then reassess if they are ready to end or continue less frequently. I am open to working with you to find what is best.

Telephone & Emergency Procedures: At times, phone contact is necessary between sessions. Clients are encouraged to keep phone contacts brief, if possible, and to address issues during your regular therapy session. If you need to speak with me between sessions, please call 732-440-8166. Your call will be returned as soon as possible. I am in solo private practice, not part of a group clinic, so if an emergency requires immediate attention, you agree to call the National Suicide Hotline at 800-784-2433 or 911, contact a crisis hotline, or go to a hospital emergency room.

- HIPPA: I understand that Lotus Blossom Psychotherapy adheres to the privacy practices outlined in the HIPPA National Providers policy available for my review in the office. Typically state and license confidentiality regulations are far more stringent so the most restrictive standard is adhered to for counseling. Please see separate attached documentation.
